Re: No Response to Request for Information Pursuant to Section 104 of CERCLA for Chemetco Site in Hartford, Madison County, Illinois

Dear Mr. Ramirez:

You are receiving this correspondence because you have not responded to the Request for Information that was enclosed with a General Notice Letter issued by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) on November 30, 2011, for the Chemetco Superfund site in Hartford, Illinois. EPA issued an information request to you/your client pursuant to Section 104(e) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, as amended (CERCLA), 42 U.S.C. § 9604(e). This information request required you/your client to provide certain documents and information within 30 days of receipt, and that deadline was extended to May 5, 2012.

Although the deadline for responding has passed, EPA has not received any response to the information request. EPA therefore requests that you/your client comply immediately with that information request.

Send your response to the information request to:

Michelle Kerr, Remedial Project Manager
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency – Region 5
Superfund Division (SR-6J)
77 West Jackson Blvd.
Chicago, Illinois 60604-3590

You/your client may, if desired, assert a business confidentiality claim covering part or all of the information requested, in the manner described by 40 C.F.R. § 2.203 (b). Information covered by such a claim will be disclosed by EPA only to the extent, and only by means of the procedures, provided in 40 C.F.R. Part 2, Subpart B. If no such claim accompanies the information when it is received by EPA, it may be made available to the public by EPA without further notice to you/your client.

Continued failure to comply with EPA's information request, or to adequately justify such failure to respond, may subject you/your client to an enforcement action seeking to compel compliance and collect penalties of up to $37,500 per day of noncompliance pursuant to Section 104(e)(5) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. § 9604(e)(5) and as adjusted by 69 Fed. Reg. 7121-27 (Feb. 13, 2004) (codified at 40 C.F.R. § 19.4) pursuant to the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996. EPA has the authority to use the information requested herein in an administrative, civil or criminal action.

Please contact Thomas Martin, Associate Regional Counsel, at 312.886.4273 or martin.thomas@epa.gov if you have any legal questions regarding this matter. For all other questions, or to request another copy of the original package, please contact Michelle Kerr at 312.886.8961 or kerr.michelle@epa.gov.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Re: No Response to Request for Information Pursuant to Section 104 of CERCLA for Chemetco Site in Hartford, Madison County, Illinois

Dear Mr. Michaels:

You are receiving this correspondence because you have not responded to the Request for Information that was enclosed with a General Notice Letter issued by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) on November 30, 2011, for the Chemetco Superfund site in Hartford, Illinois. EPA issued an information request to you/your client pursuant to Section 104(e) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, as amended (CERCLA), 42 U.S.C. § 9604(e). This information request required you/your client to provide certain documents and information within 30 days of receipt, and that deadline was extended to May 5, 2012.

Although the deadline for responding has passed, EPA has not received any response to the information request. EPA therefore requests that you/your client comply immediately with that information request.

Send your response to the information request to:

Michelle Kerr, Remedial Project Manager
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency – Region 5
Superfund Division (SR-6J)
77 West Jackson Blvd.
Chicago, Illinois 60604-3590

You/your client may, if desired, assert a business confidentiality claim covering part or all of the information requested, in the manner described by 40 C.F.R. § 2.203 (b). Information covered by such a claim will be disclosed by EPA only to the extent, and only by means of the procedures, provided in 40 C.F.R. Part 2, Subpart B. If no such claim accompanies the information when it is received by EPA, it may be made available to the public by EPA without further notice to you/your client.

Continued failure to comply with EPA's information request, or to adequately justify such failure to respond, may subject you/your client to an enforcement action seeking to compel compliance and collect penalties of up to $37,500 per day of noncompliance pursuant to Section 104(e)(5) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. § 9604(e)(5) and as adjusted by 69 Fed. Reg. 7121-27 (Feb. 13, 2004) (codified at 40 C.F.R. § 19.4) pursuant to the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996. EPA has the authority to use the information requested herein in an administrative, civil or criminal action.

Please contact Thomas Martin, Associate Regional Counsel, at 312.886.4273 or martin.thomas@epa.gov if you have any legal questions regarding this matter. For all other questions, or to request another copy of the original package, please contact Michelle Kerr at 312.886.8961 or kerr.michelle@epa.gov.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.
